ACTIVITY: HOW WOULD YOU PREFER TO PARTICIPATE?

Some NW-COP volunteers maintain a neighborhood watch from their home, back porch or garden. Others patrol via bicycle, dog-walking or by car.

Neighborhood Watch:

Please Check the Ways You'd Like to Help:

- Be a Neighborhood Watch Blockwatcher. Keep an eye out for crime.
- Be a "telephoner"-- phone NW-COP volunteers to remind them of scheduled events.
- Host a Citizens On Patrol meeting or Neighborhood Watch meeting at your house.
- Attend meetings for us, such as the Police Community Relations Council or local PTA.

Citizens On Patrol:

Despite the name, "C.O.P.'s are not police officers. They are everyday citizens who participate in a citizen observer patrol program. Participants attend a training session and agree to comply with the standards of the program. Our COP program is funded by a grant from the Baltimore County Police Department. (For scheduling options, see "For Patrollers", below).

PARENTS: Are you a member of a Parent Teachers Association? yes no
